

Reinier SCHLATMANN

Reinier has over 20 years of professional experience in the areas of management, marketing, sales and finance - both in mature and emerging markets. Since November 2016 he is the CEO of Philips Central and Eastern Europe.

Before he was responsible for healthcare in the Middle East, CEO of Ukraine, Caucasus & Central Asia and Area Marketing Officer of Nordics & Baltics.

Based in Warsaw, Reinier oversees 19 countries, including Poland, Romania and Czech Republic. He has been with Philips since 2004. He also worked in strategy consulting and venture capital across Europe.

Reinier Schlatmann is 46 years old. He graduated from the Erasmus University Rotterdam and Michigan State University and has degree in Business Economics of enterprise and International Marketing. He also completed Business Valuation at Rotterdam School of Management, Executive Leadership Program at Wharton Business School and Advanced Management Program at INSEAD.