

Marek Cieślak

A graduate of the Faculty of Law of the University of Lodz (1984). Legal adviser - since 1989. Over 20 years of experience in public administration, including Director of the Senate Office of the Republic of Poland, Deputy Mayor of Sieradz, Deputy Mayor of Łódź. He participated in the work of teams preparing development strategies for the Łódzkie region, the Łódź agglomeration and the city of Łódź. Over 10 years of managerial experience, including: President of the Management Board of the Łódź Special Economic Zone, Vice President of the Management Board of Municipal Transport Company, President of the Bionanopark as well as Technology Transfer Center of the Łódź University of Technology, member of the Management Board of the "Bioeconomy Cluster" Association. In 2008 he was awarded the "Professional Manager of the Łódź Province".